THE TRUTH ABOUT MAINE.

After all the crowing about their great victory in Maine it appears that the Republicans polled only 1164 more votes this year than they did in 1882, the figures being 69,064 for 1894 against 67,900 for 1892. And this gain came from the Prohibitionists and not the Democrats, as the returns plainly show. In 1892 the Prohibitionist vote was 3864 but it fell this year to 2615, showing a loss of 1249, almost exactly the amount of the Republican gain. The Populists gained more votes than the Republicans. In 1892 the Populist candidate for Governor received 2888 votes; this year he received 4530, showing a gain of 1642 against a Republican gain of 1164. The large Republican plurality was due to the fact that nearly 25,000 Democrats refused to vote. They knew that they had a hopeless fight, and were thoroughly disgusted with the local management of the party. They manifested this disgust by staying away from the polls. On the other hand the Republicans with the full assurance of victory, put forth tremendous efforts to swell their vote. Distinguished speakers were brought in from other States, and money was spent like water, the object being to roll up an abnormal majority over an unresisting foe to parade in other States.

The Caucus Nominee.

E. L. Buckingham has been all his life a machine politician and a Republican of the strictest sect. His motto was that the Republican party could do nothing wrong.

At the late Republican Convention Mr. Buckingham was the caucus nominee for Justice of the Peace, and went into the Convention with a full heart and smiling countenance. But, when the roll was called Mr. Hawthorne was nominated. Some of Buckingham's supporters in the caucus having flopped at the dictation of the bosses.

The Republicans make a great show of allowing the party to conduct the work of a nominating Convention, but this is only on the surface. The slate is fixed up and if the caucus nominates the slate all right, and if it don't the nicks in the slate are corrected in the convention.

Mr. Buckingham was the one nick in the slate and as soon as the local bosses found that things were not as they wanted them they promptly squelched Mr. Buckingham, the caucus nominee, who by all the well established rules of politics was entitled to the nomination.

Charlie Wilson was also a candidate for the office. He has grown gray in the service of the Republican party, but the bosses didn't want him and he was caved down the back. The friends of these two men propose to settle the account with the Republican party on Election day.

Took Them at Their Word.

In the State platform of the Republican party of Nevada the following appears:

We hereby pledge our candidates for Congress and request our United States Senators to make the question of silver paramount to every other, to treat it as strictly non-partisan, which it is; to hold themselves free from all party dictation concerning it, and to use all honorable means to bring about its complete restoration at the old-time ratio of 16 to 1.

This is precisely the course Senator Jones has taken in the matter and for so doing he was at once kicked out of the party.

When this platform was written, this plank was inserted for the purpose of catching Silver votes. It was an attempt to make Silver men think that the Republican party was all right after all on the silver question. But they were so zealous in the matter that they somewhat over did it, and when Jones took them at their word they went off at half cock and wrote an abusive letter that has not only kicked Jones out of the party, but all his friends.

No Property Interests.

The Tribune asserts that the Commissioner nominees have no property interests in this county. The printed tax roll reads:

Slingerland, C. E., $1,200; Schneider, Henry, $350; Total $1,550. Since the roll was printed Mr. Slingerland purchased a piece of land paying $500 cash, which makes the total $2,050. On the other side we find:

Woodbury, J. P., $625; Bray, C. E., $600; Total, $1,225.

The showing made against Commissioner Bray two years ago was the entering wedge that split the Republican party in two, opened the eyes of the Ormsby county taxpayers and snowed the county ring under. Bray was the only man in the county ring against whom anything was actually proven, and then the courts decided he had violated the law. Result: He is the only one of the old ring re-nominated. Bray knows too much of the secrets of the ring and when he wanted a re-nomination the bosses did not dare refuse. He represents the principles of the Republican party of Ormsby more than any other nominee. His friends say they want a "vindication" of the APPEAL charges. Do they also want a "vindication" of the decision of Judge Rising in the case of Bray vs. Ormsby county?

Kate Field has always been a little inclined to favor prize fighters, and knows the good points of a pugilist when she sees one stripped for action.

In her bright little paper "Washington," she says that she proposes to get a peep at that fight Corbett and another fellow was in at Edison's laboratory in front of a Kinetoscope. A tip from Kate on a ring contest has always been considered a good thing to place money on in newspaper circles.

The parties who were put on the Senatorial and Legislative ticket of the Republican party of Ormsby, begin already to wonder what the party had against them to put them in such a hole.
